Performance Evaluation

From May 2002 - March 2006 Camp Dresser & McKee, Inc. Contract FC-7102-99 Comprehensive Environmental Services

Camp Dresser: & McKee (CDM) has provided environmental consulting services to the DOA under the current contract as well as for previous years under Contract FC 6384-95. During that time, CDM has proven themselves to be a highly effective firm with nationwide resources that are available to the DOA to solve the most difficult problem.

Cooperation: CDM personnel have always been extremely cooperative in every task they've been assigned. No matter what time or day or night or to what extent their services are needed, they are willing and able to do the job.

Reliability: During the time CDM has provided environmental services to the DOA, they have proven to be an overall dependable and reliable firm. When situations have arisen that do not meet their, and DOA, standards for responsiveness, they will work with the DOA to make sure similar lapses do not reoccur.

Follow-up: CDM and their sub-consultants have been very diligent and successful in working as a team to insure follow-up on projects that are critical to the DOA mission.

Personnel: The personnel assigned to work on the DOA projects are always very well trained in their specific field of endeavor and bring to the job a willingness to do what's necessary to complete the job. If any issues occur pertaining to project deliverables, they will work with DOA staff to rectify the issue so that the end product meets DOA standards.

Contact: The primary contact for CDM is Ms. Tina Houston, Senior Vice President. Although running the local CDM office is a full time job in itself, she still dedicates the time necessary to serve the needs of the DOA in an exceptional manner. Further, her senior rank within the company provides her with the ability to dedicate staff and resources to our critical tasks.

Training: CDM provides their staff with not only required training but offers them every opportunity to attend workshops and conferences that build on their expertise.

Contract: CDM has made fulfilled the terms of their contract.

Contract Amount: No additional funding is anticipated for this contract extension.

Overall Rating: Very Satisfactory
